

AI & The Future Workforce

What Will the Future Enterprise Demand for Their Workforce?

Spotlight Session
11/10 at 9:00 - 10:00 AM
Pacifica Ballroom 7-12

Join Andy Chen for an engaging and futuristic look at the workplace of tomorrow

*Andy Chen
President & CEO
Catronic Enterprise*

Andy Chen, President & CEO, Catronic Enterprise

Andy Chen is the President & CEO of a global consulting firm. The firm's principle business is to provide consulting services for utility industry worldwide. Andy has over 30 years of experience in utility sectors specializing in Nuclear Power Generation. For the past eight years, Andy has been assisting leading global consulting firms in business development for the Nuclear Utilities in China and in North America. In recent years, Andy had provided advices on Enterprise Asset Management best practices for power generations to several government agencies and State Owned Enterprises (SOE) in China and Australia. Andy is the 2016/2017 vice president of the IEEE CS Professional and Educational Activities Board.

Andy is a member of the Technical Advisory Council for the FinTech Ideas Festival. As an internationally recognized speaker, Chen was a keynote speaker at the World Computer Congress, the World CIO Forum, and the Digital Africa Conference. Andy is a partner of REDDS Venture Investment partners which empower disruptive start-ups that scale worldwide and have billion dollars plus potential through team building, global business development, financing, mentoring, and strategy. Andy held the position of the Chief Technology Officer and Vice President, Enterprise Strategy and Architecture of a Canadian based electricity generator

